Discovery Gateway Will Celebrate Independence Day with Free Admission for Military Families

SALT LAKE CITY—Discovery Gateway children's museum invites military families to enjoy free admission on the Fourth of July holiday. Patrons showing a valid military ID will receive free admission for up to six people. The Museum will be open from noon to 6pm on July 4, 2010.

"Time spent at Discovery Gateway as a family is centered on sharing, playing and learning together. Our goal is to provide a quality family experience for our soldiers, veterans and their loved ones to connect with one another," said Museum CEO Maria Farrington. "We want to show our support for and thank the servicemen and women who serve our country and ensure the freedoms we celebrate on the Fourth of July."

Discovery Gateway is committed to supporting military families and offers a year-round 2-4-1 discount to the families of the men and women who serve our country every day.

About Discovery Gateway…
