Discovery Gateway Welcomes Children's Musician Aaron Nigel Smith Award-Winning Musician to Perform on Tuesday, June 29th

SALT LAKE CITY—Discovery Gateway children's museum welcomes children's musician Aaron Nigel Smith on Tuesday, June 29 at 12pm. The one-hour performance is free with museum admission. Smith has released three albums, Let's Pretend, Aaron Nigel Smith featuring the Activators, and Everyone Loves to Dance. His latest release, Everyone Loves to Dance, is a 2010 Parents Choice winner and features Ziggy Marley, Kevin Richardson from the Backstreet Boys, and DJ DREZ. Smith is also the newest member of the award-winning PBS show, "Between the Lions."

"Discovery Gateway is excited to welcome Aaron Nigel Smith to the Museum. His music is upbeat and fun but above-all it's cool—not what many would consider typical children's music, and he appeals to parents and kids alike," said Tammy Spicer, the Museum's manager of programming.

Seating for the performance will be on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information on the Aaron Nigel Smith performance, visit the museum's website at www.discoverygateway.org. For more information about Aaron Nigel Smith, visit www.aaronnigelsmith.com
