Discovery Gateway Welcomes New Board Members and Recognizes Executive Director

SALT LAKE CITY—Discovery Gateway children's museum welcomed six new members to its board of directors at the Museum's annual meeting on Thursday, June 3rd. The new board members are as follows:

- Bryce Baker, Hamilton Partners
- Gina Crezee, Rio Tinto
- Jonathan Crocker, Crocker Ventures
- Scott Forbush, Telesphere
- Dr. Paul McCarty, Granite School District
- Heidi Walker, Salt Lake Chamber

“We are committed to providing educational opportunities for families and with the support of our strong board we will continue to offer our excellent programming and be a valuable resource in this community,” said Board Chair Steven Suite.

At the meeting, the board also changed Maria Farrington's title from Executive Director to Chief Operating Officer and recognized her for her appointment to the state's Educational Curriculum Materials Review Committee. As a member of the committee Ms. Farrington will be responsible for the review and recommendation of core classroom materials for use in grades kindergarten through sixth-grade.

Discovery Gateway also thanks Dan Boyle, Katie Eccles, Abby Gottsegen and Pam Joklik for renewing their membership to the Museum's board of directors, and the Museum thanks Darin Gilson, who is leaving the board, for his service to the organization.
